

MANY STORIES, ONE PEOPLE

Acknowledgment and Logo Requirements North Carolina Humanities Council

Continued availability of Humanities Council funds depends in large part upon the public's recognition of the involvement of the Humanities Council and the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) in supporting cultural work.

1. The North Carolina Humanities Council logo and tagline ("Many Stories, One People") must be prominently displayed on the grantee's online (web), printed, or in video programs documenting or promoting the project. The NCHC logo should be included in materials such as press releases, brochures, catalogues, and periodicals.
2. Publicity and printed materials regarding North Carolina Humanities Council grants, funded activities, and/or partnerships should also contain the following acknowledgment:

This project is made possible in part by the North Carolina Humanities Council, a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Restrictions on NCHC logo usage:

1. The NCHC logo may only be used by permission of the North Carolina Humanities Council by its grantees and project partners to identify programs, events, or projects funded in part or in whole by the North Carolina Humanities Council.
2. Do not reproduce the logo from faxed or photocopied images.
3. Do not distort the NCHC logo.
4. Do not combine the NCHC logo with other graphic elements, headlines, or words.
5. Only print or publish the NCHC logo in black and white, or blue (PMS-294) and white.

If you have questions about NCHC logo use or acknowledgment, please call the North Carolina Humanities Council.
