1. Did the humanities scholar speak to the topic/issue for which you engaged him/her?
2. How do you rank him/her as a speaker?    Very Poor    Okay    Excellent
3. Was there anything uniquely different, imaginative, interesting about your speaker's perspective?
Please describe.
4. Was your speaker's style (and/or degree of difficulty) appropriate to your audience's level of understanding?
5. Was he/she able to present a complex idea, subject or issue so that the "heart of the matter" stood out more distinctly for your audiences to recognize? What was the most significant question(s) raised by your project?
6. Was he/she able to develop the issue well enough to draw your audience into a discussion so that the different viewpoints of a single issue could emerge? Please give examples of the variety of views expressed.
7. How would you describe the quality of the discussion between your speakers and your audience?
8. Would you recommend this scholar again? Why? Why not?
